Café Europa located in the Crestwood Shops at 323 E. 55th St., KCMO has one of the coziest bars in the City. It's been a favorite place for a beverage for years. However I didn't order off their food menu until last summer. Wow! On my first visit I split the bass entree with a friend and even a split plate provided a generous portion. Since that evening I've been a regular diner at the bar. Susan (who was voted best bartender in KC in 2011) graciously serves her customers and Dan runs the show between front and back of the house.

On any given evening a friend and I split a side salad and margarita pizza. The other night I branched out and enjoyed a well-seasoned Mahi Mahi in a pool of vegetable stock accompanied by roasted brussels sprouts and fingerling potatoes. Susan said the stock was simply vegetable broth with a tiny bit of butter but my dining companion detected hints of miso. Susan told us of the "bar secret" - an off menu entree - a crazy good ribeye served with fries and compound butter. Call ahead and ask for Susan to be sure they have it!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses, is a great way to support our local economy.
