El Camino Real has three locations. I've been to the two in Kansas City, KS. I consider their store at 903 N. 7th Street in Downtown Kansas City, KS as their home base. This is another one of those "I feel like in on vacation" spots. Your view from the street is a huge, skewered rack of pork cooking on a manually operated rotisserie in the front window. This storefront restaurant highlights the kitchen to the right of the front door as you enter. El Camino Real serves a Pico De Gallo that's a brilliant blend of tomatoes, onions, cilantro and jalapenos; if you like it hot. I mix my Pico with their smoky flavored hot sauce to eat with their fresh, warm chips...Wow!

El Camino Real's special, and what they serve the most of, are pork tacos. Your meal is prepared with virtually made to order corn tortillas. I broke from my work to watch the pound of dough running thru the tortilla machine and the final product being fried in front of me. Your Tacos al Pastor come with a sliver of pineapple...nice. Very healthy portions of cilantro and chopped onion are available as condiments. Squeeze slivers of lime over the top for a great combination of flavors. Authentic Comida Mexicana...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
