Holly had a day off from school so we picked up Alyssa and headed to Anthony's Restaurant & Lounge of Kansas City for lunch. Located at 701 Grand Boulevard, Anthony's has been serving authentic family recipes for thirty years. This Italian restaurant boasts lots of Italian artwork on the walls and an occasional Roman bust. It finds its place charmingly nestled in the "kitsch" category. A great Italian gem but makes you watch your back for the Godfather.

Nana Angelina's (the matriarch of this fine establishment) homemade recipes come served with warm Italian bread & butter and salad. "Awesome! Super good Italian dressing!" voiced Alyssa. Alyssa and I split Nana Angelina's homemade lasagna with Italian sausage. Holly enjoyed Caesar salad and baked pasta. Alyssa raved about the ice tea. Rosemary was a delightful server. I felt like I was a guest in her home. She was perfectly attentive and provided Alyssa tea to go along with our leftovers...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses, is a great way to support our local economy.
