I relish dining in a 15th century Italian courtyard whenever able. Rozelle Court Restaurant, nestled within Kansas City's grandest art museum, is an enchanting place to relax and enjoy an excellent meal. The Nelson-Atkin's Rozelle Court offers self-serve dining during the day and sit-down dining with live music Friday evenings. On a recent weekday, I enjoyed a meal with a museum employee...real sit-down service! Unexpected and very nice.

I felt a little guilty and very special as I watched the buffet line grow. By noon the courtyard restaurant was full. My dining companion and I both chose the day's entrée of a lightly Beer Battered Rock Fish. It came served with a lovely Sundried Tomato Aioli, Roasted Chipotle Potatoes and Chayote (squash) Slaw. The fish was super good. The slaw had a sprinkling of cayenne red pepper...Very nice!!!!...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses, is a great way to support our local economy.

I sell and lease industrial buildings. Call 913-951-8402 to let me know how I can help you. Call or email for more information about the Industrial Real Estate Market and other great restaurants. Copyright Pat Murfey, 2013
