Pat Murfey's Restaurants Off The Beaten Path are My Favorite!

Volume LXI

October 2014

Just south of my high school summer employer, Suburban Lawn & Garden, is Fox Hill Shopping Center at 106th & Roe, Leawood, KS. I stumbled upon Brobeck's Barbeque while meandering through my old stomping ground on a summer Saturday afternoon. The strip center appeared empty except for the cars surrounding Brobeck's. A good sign...right! Doug and Dean

Brobeck have been here since 2007...long after I retired from Suburban to go to college.

A greeting as I entered through the door was very nice. First impression - the place was simple and clean. I could sit in the sliver of the restaurant booths nearly filled full of patrons at 2:30pm, be in solitude at a six top or join the two guys at the bar. I chose the bar. The service was great. Every employee truly seemed happy and passed it along. Smokin' fast delivery of my order of pulled pork and ham sandwich with fries; out in a flash. The sauces were great. There were two sauces on each table. One was a sweer homemade barbeque sauce and the other one was a spicy, vinegar based Caralina mustard sauce. A "sauce bar" featured Gates, Arthur Bryant, etc. The steak fries - "crispy on the outside and tender in the middle" per my delightful server was terrific...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses, is a great way to support our local economy.
