I'm always looking for a new and unique dining experience. But mainly I'm looking for good food. I've enjoyed both at El Pollo Rey at 1101 Kansas Avenue, KCKS on several occasions. No need to speak Spanish at this Mexican joint. They only serve Chicken...you get a whole or a half. That's it. I believe in specializing. When you only serve one thing, you get it right. Your bird comes with a plastic bag of pickled red onions, spicy Verde sauce, really great flour tortillas and sides of soupy beans & rice.

Pick your ripe avocado off the front counter and the chief / your cashier will slice it for you. Grab lots of napkins before you sit down. You'll need them! The décor is simple; four yellow plastic laminate booths and one folding card table. I recently enjoyed my meal with four young Hispanic men who each had their own half bird and six women who pooled their funds and shared a chicken "family style". I throw everything; avocado, chicken, onions and Verde sauce in the tortillas and enjoy. Pay when your full...Cash Only / No Checks / No Credit Cards...Check it out!

I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting this establishment or one of the many other Kansas City owned and operated businesses, is a great way to boost our local economy.
