Los Alamos Market y Cocina is located on the north end of Kansas City, Missouri's historic Hispanic West Side neighborhood at 1667 Summit. Its caddy-corner from the Blue Bird Café and a door down from the West-side Local on the northeast corner of 17th & Summit. I've enjoyed Los Alamos Market y Cocina for several years. I'm drawn in for lunch during weekdays; Saturdays on the way to work; and for breakfast on Sundays.

Los Alamos Market y Cocina, as the name declares, is a market with a restaurant tucked inside. I love the ribs in red sauce with a side of beans and rice wrapped in a warm corn tortilla for lunch. I recently enjoyed Huevo Rancheros con Carnitas on a Sunday morning with a couple of my neighbors who graciously welcomed me to join them. We're on the same page when it comes to food. Authentic Mexican food in a unique setting...Check it out!

I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting this establishment or one of the many other Kansas City owned and operated businesses, is a great way to boost our local economy.
