We've enjoyed several meals at Attitude at 600 E. 31st St., KCMO in the last couple of months. We discovered it due to a neighboring business not being open on Sundays and are really glad we did. It's a one room restaurant nestled on the northeast corner of 31st & Cherry in an up and coming "maker business" neighborhood. Attitude has a quaint interior with the old Drug Store tile floor. The space is decorated with random antiques for sale. I especially like that the walls aren't finished. They have exposed plaster with layers of white and green paint providing a patina feeling.

What to say about the food? Good tea; tasty biscuits and gravy; succulent Reuben - perhaps the best in town; delicious homemade meatballs & marinara served as a sub or over spaghetti; scrumptious BLT with thick cut tomatoes & plenty of kick-ass bacon; savory gravy on open-faced roast beef with perfect mashed potatoes. Yum! Great food and friendly, speedy service!...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting locally owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
