Long beloved Mike's Taven at 5424 Troost, KCMO is gone. The building has a whole new life. It's been completely renovated into Brady's Public House. What a change! The building has been transformed from a stinky, old, worn, blue collar / college student bar into a cozy family restaurant.

The interior is a really warm and comfortable Irish pub. The owner, Executive Chef Shaun Brady, is from Ireland and has brought a bit of Ireland to Kansas City. Of course Brady's has Guinness, Smithwick's and Murphy's on tap and regulars tell me they also have one of the largest gin selections in the country.

Chef Brady prepares his food from scratch and sources from local purveyors whenever possible. We've tried a little bit of everything. The traditional fish & chips are really good. A friend of mine substitutes the chips for twice-baked potatoes and says they're great. The pies are savory and tasty and the fried chicken is some of the best you'll ever taste. You can see their menu online at www.bradyskc.com...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
