Ryan in our office turned me on to California Taco Shop. He used to get a breakfast burrito on the way into work. Located at 1268 Kansas Ave., it's one of the many great restaurants in the Armourdale Neighborhood. When I first started going, the small dining room was always full of construction workers in their green or yellow reflective vests. The owners appeared to do a deep clean with the onset of COVID-19 in the Spring of 2020.

The tables and chairs were stacked all summer with take-out only. The tables and chairs are back out but we're still doing pick-up. Call in and they'll have your meal ready when you arrive. The menu is extensive with lots of combination plates, breakfast served all day and a nice selection of sauces. One of my favorites is the Califas burrito. It's a great combination of steak, potatoes, cheese and Pico De Gallo. Nicole recently enjoyed Huevos A La Mexicana, eggs, rice, beans and Pico De Gallo...Check it out.

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of frequenting locally owned businesses, especially ones that provide online or phone orders and pick up. Supporting locally owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
