From its exterior you won't expect Jarocho Pescados y Mariscos, located at 719 Kansas Avenue in KCKS, to be the recommendation from my fine dining culinary elitist "food snob" friends. Jarocho is housed in an unassuming little blue and beige painted building with parking to the south and west. No thrills of elaborate decorations either when you walk in. The interior is simple, bright and clean. Chef-owner Carlos Falcon's emphasis at Jarocho is on authentic Mexican seaside meals prepared with remarkably fresh seafood.

The menu's extensive for a seafood fan. We've had a handful of excellent meals including their Stuffed Fish Filet. It's a grilled filet topped with octopus, shrimp, and blue crab in a creamy cheese sauce. Super tasty! Another evening we started with a couple varieties of Oysters on the half shell and shared a 2 1/2 Fluke between the four of us. Could have used a fifth. Lots of fish! Great Margaritas, super friendly, knowledgeable and attentive servers complete the fine dining experience...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
