Peter May's House of Kielbasa looks like an old general store from the street. That's because it is. Polish immigrant Peter May opened his neighborhood grocery at 1654 Bristol, KCMO in 1929. That's right! The family run business is celebrating ninety years. Interior goods for sale have been replaced by collections of a little bit of everything. Signs, tools, model cars, collector statues, you name it. There is a lot to look at. Order at the counter and find a seat at one of the several tables or booths.

The Mays have a lot of options on their menu, but since we were at the House of Kielbasa that's what we tried. They make and smoke their own Kielbasa sausage and it is great. They'll also sell you some to take home and cook yourself. Their sandwich is the perfect blend of Kielbasa, sauerkraut, onions, pickles and mustard on a soft hoagie bun. Love at first bite...Check 'em out! You can find out more about their history and their menu offerings from their facebook page.

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
