West Bottoms Kitchen opened in June 2016 at 1623 Genessee St., KCMO directly across from the Live-stock Exchange Building. It's a great addition to the handful of other homegrown restaurant / bar / breweries in this little strip of Genessee. The interior is tastefully designed. Seating is available at nine or ten four-top tables and five teal colored stools at the stainless steel / reclaimed wood bar. It's a small dining room, yet seems very gracious due to the dark gray walls, tall ceiling, large storefront windows and great service.

My first meal here was perfectly fried, crispy catfish served on a bed of succulent skillet corn accented with grape tomatoes. I usually make a point to eat just half of my meal or split with my dining companion. I made an exception with this catfish. My dining companion had a fried green tomato BLT...very Southern. Since then I've sampled the tasty Blackened Meatloaf and their Kitchen Gumbo - both are excellent...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
