On a recent visit to Lawrence we happened into Zen Zero for dinner. It's an Asian noodle shop and restaurant at 811 Massachusetts Street. They feature Nepal, Tibet, Thailand, Vietnam and Japan cuisines. The interior is clean and open with multi-colored earth tone walls. The atmosphere is upbeat and hipster. With time limited to get to a performance at the Lied Center, we were seated quickly and received our meals soon after ordering. We enjoyed our meal so much we went back for lunch the next day.

I enjoyed Pad Kee Mao (Drunken Noodles). It's spicy noodles with onions, bell peppers, tomatoes, scallions, oyster sauce & Thai basil. My wife had the Yellow Curry. It's served with onions, bell peppers and tomatoes in a yellow curry sauce. Great Food!...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting locally owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
