The Campground is located in the West Bottoms at 1531 Genessee in the former Genessee Royal gas station. The owner, Christopher, has been behind the bar wiping up craft cocktails both times we've been for brunch. The interior is slick, contemporary and cozy. The walls are painted black and a cool moss themed wallpaper soffit hovers above the bar with artistic ceramic light pendants illuminating the space. I get a kick out of the raccoon behind the bar and the doe mounted by the front door. Just as you'd expect to see at the campground, right?

Our first meal we split a juicy burger topped with bacon and egg and perfectly prepared crispy breakfast potatoes. Our second visit we enjoyed eggs, thick salty bacon, their sinful breakfast potatoes and a perfectly prepared biscuit (best in town) with a side of delicious chunky gravy. The Campground also features elegant craft cocktails as well as lunch and dinner menus. Find them at www.thecampgroundkc.com. Check them out...

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
