Fritz's Chili is celebrating their 50th Anniversary in 2016. Yes...Fritz's has been a Kansas City institution since 1966. Pretty cool. Their history goes back even further to Dixon's Chili established at 15th & Olive in 1919. Today, Fritz's Chili is owned and operated by Diana and Bruce Fritz. They took over from Bruce's parents in 1982. Walking into Fritz's is a step back in time. The 10 low red stools at the bar face the original counter and stainless steel kitchen equipment. The interior features red and white checker tile floors and wood paneled walls.

Fritz's began with a focus on high quality food and fast service. The tradition continues today. Fritz's Chili Parlor has a limited menu of chili, tacos, tamales and hot dogs. I recently enjoyed a medium chili plate with extra onions, cheese, jalapeño relish, chili powder, vinegar and of course Saltine Crackers...Check it out!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses.

Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
