The North End (formerly LaSala's) located at 915 E. 5th St., KCMO, is a 25' x 50' one room restaurant / bar with a new outdoor patio. While visiting for lunch we were stopped by a Columbus Park native eager to give us a history lesson on the neighborhood. As a child he boxed at the ring that used to be down the street. The restaurant displays a picture of that old ring among other historical neighborhood photos. Order at the rear counter and their friendly servers will promptly deliver your food.

This is the kind of place where regulars have their favorites and the servers know them. The meaty Poor Boy sandwich comes in whole, half or quarter sizes. I ordered the quarter and it was three meals for me. The delicious Eggplant Parmesan is coated in a crispy batter and topped with tomato sauce and cheese. On Friday's you have your choice of seafood delights. For lunch we enjoyed their perfectly fried (no grease) corn-meal battered catfish with crispy waffle fries. Once for dinner we feasted on their shrimp and crab boil. Wow...Great food!

Buy Local! I'm a proponent of patronizing locally owned businesses. Supporting Kansas City owned and operated businesses is a great way to support our local economy.
